Chairman's Report

Chairman's Report Annual General Meeting 1.12.59

During the year we held one of the most stimulating and successful C.A.S. Exhibitions I can remember. It took us all rather by surprise, for it had not been long premeditated and, I am inclined to believe, if it hadn't been for our organising secretary's personal enthusiasm for the whole idea, we might have allowed the opportunity to slide by untaken. I refer to our Recent Acquisitions Exhibition at the Arts Council Gallery. This was the first time we had given the public a chance to see what we were about to distribute to our beneficiaries, public galleries all over the country and in the Dominions. Whether it was the rooms themselves, or the admirable arrangement and hanging of the pictures, or just the undoubted fact that they were a most impressive and lively collection, I don't know; but, whatever the reason, it was a show which excited people and made many a member of the C.A.S. feel proud of his part as a subscriber in having made the whole affair possible. It started with a swing with an evening preview party, and some 4,000 people came and enjoyed it while it was at St. James's Square. In July it went to the Cheltenham Art Gallery in conjunction with the Cheltenham Music Festival.

While our recent acquisitions were making their mark in this way, our flag was also flying around the provinces, where our Religious Theme Exhibition had the most successful and longest tour the Society has ever arranged. During 1959 it was shown at Rotherham, Bury, Batley, Manchester, Halifax, Middlesbrough, Scarborough, Hull, Nottingham, Leicester and South London. In fact it will not be dismantled till later this month.

Our allocations to Public Galleries were of course made after the acquisitions were publicly shown. We had a few further pictures and some sculpture held over from previous occasions and so altogether were able to allocate no less than 108 works to 96 galleries in Great Britain and the Commonwealth. It is not a very easy job to make such an allocation and it may be of interest to you to hear how we normally set about it. As many as possible of the Gallery Director are first invited to come and see the pictures and sculpture available. Those who cannot come may send representatives to act for them. Each then writes in to us giving his first preference and a list of second, third and later choices. Naturally there are always a few works which are within every gallery's first two or three choices. We then sit down and try to divide the swag as fairly as we can between the various claimants. Several factors have to be taken into account. We prefer, for instance, to send a work by a local painter to his home gallery rather than to some other claimant. We have to take into account the values of the works and compare them with the amounts subscribed by rival claimants. We remember if we can which gallery was particularly favoured last time and we try to give someone else a plum this time. It is, as I have said, a delicate job.

Our visits to private collections this year have ranged far. In April the splendid collections of the American Ambassador and of Mrs Oliver Parker were thrown open to us. In July several colleges in Oxford were visited, their Junior Common Rooms burgeoning with collections of contemporary painting. Recent murals and the enamel commissioned from Stefan Knapp by St. Anne's added to the pleasures of the morning. In the afternoon Sir John and Lady Rothenstein were pleasurably visited at Newington and later Mr John Piper's house and studio and Mr & Mrs Hans Juda's cottage, both at Fawley Bottom, were visited and greatly admired. It was an exhausting and complex day for the Organising Secretary, who came through with honours and acclamation. In October three Hampstead houses were thrown open, those of Mr & Mrs Leon Bagrit, Mr & Mrs Robert Hart and our own. To all these hosts, including my wife, I offer universal thanks. Speaking as a host, I may say perhaps that, though the experience is alarming in prospect, once it gets going it proves to have a very pleasant side to it. Our fellow-members are so kind in what they say, and so appreciative of what we have to show, that what had seemed daunting becomes rewarding. At least, that is the effect it has had on some of us. There are disadvantages, of course, particularly if one throws almost every room open. I myself found the post of guide-lecturer too much for me after several hours, so I decided to escape and do some gardening. But I was foiled by finding five people in my dressing-room and had to end up by changing in the kitchen. However, it all made the day nice and matey.

We have had also a most successful evening party at the Tate Gallery - a pre-view of the splendid Romantic Movement Exhibition.

Last month members had a more unusual opportunity, which was to meet Mr F.N.Souza at Gallery One for a special view of his own exhibition there.

Next year will be our Jubilee. We are planning a very special exhibition, but as the planning is now in progress I am not in a position to tell you in any detail what we will do. The main idea, however, is to hold a retrospective show of our purchases since our foundation half a century ago.

Honorary Treasurer's Report Honorary Treasurer's Report Annual General Meeting 1.12.59

I am delighted to announce that in 1958 our income amounted to over £5,100, easily the largest in our history. Subscriptions from members and galleries, including refunds of Income tax on the few Seven Year Deeds we have, came to almost £3,800, virtually the same as in 1957. But in that year we only managed to reach this figure through collecting some long overdue subscriptions, so the fact that we have been able to maintain it is very satisfactory.

We had a total of seven gifts and bequests, amounting to almost £600, and £350 was received as interest on our reserves. Our Parties and Visits continued to be as financially successful as they are delightful, and showed a profit of nearly £300, which is slightly more than the previous year. And finally, on 'The Religious Theme Exhibition, we made a net profit of about £100, excluding, of course our purchases. This relates solely to the showing at the Tate Gallery, and a further profit from the provincial tour, to which the Chairman has referred, will appear in the 1959 accounts.

This income of over £5,100, was used to cover running expenses of about £1,500, and to provide £3,000 for the purchase of works of art by our Buyers for the year. The result would normally have been a profit of about £600, but we decided to use both this and part of our reserves for purchases and grants in aid from 'The Religious Theme Exhibition, amounting to just over £1,100, resulting in a final loss of the year of £474 1s 10d. This, of course, is a continuation of our policy of using our reserves whenever we consider it advisable.

You will have seen from last year's Annual Report that a large part of our subscription income is provided by public galleries. We have only about 2,000 ordinary members, and less than 300 of these have signed the Seven Year Deeds which provide the subject of my usual annual lamentation. I shall not repeat it this year, but go off in a new direction.

Almost all members still pay the minimum subscription of 1 guinea which has remained unchanged since the Society was formed. We have often considered raising it, but we feel it is a particularly valuable feature to have so many young members and artists whom we are sure we should lose if the subscription were any higher. On the other hand, we are a charity and there is nothing to stop anyone subscribing more than this minimum guinea.

When we showed our Recent Acquisitions earlier in the year, you could see what we have been able to buy with our small income, and it is exciting to imagine what we could do if only we had more funds. You must approve of what we are doing to have joined at all. Could you not, make your approval a little more obvious by subscribing - a little more?

Banker's Order The advantages of signing a Banker's Order

For you:

You do not have to send your subscription each year — your bank does it for you. You do not risk failing to get invitations to parties because your subscription is overdue.

For us:

We get your subscription promptly which may avoid our paying overdraft charges. We save the time, trouble and expense of sending you a reminder.

Deed of Covenant What is a Deed of Covenant?

It is only a formal promise to pay your subscription for the next seven years. But it means we can get back almost as much again in Tax from the Government.

Please complete both if you have not already done so.

tors to the Members of the Contemporary Art Society.

If all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit. In our opinion proper books of account have already so far as appears from our examination of those books. We have examined the above Balance Sheet and annexed Revenue Account which are in agreement with the books of account and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given us the said Accounts give the information required by the Companies Act, 1948 in the manner Balance Sheet gives a true and fair view of the state of the Society's affairs as at 31 December, 1958 and the Revenue Account gives a true and fair view of the deficit for the late.
